or other legislative relief given the high rates will wreck many publications.

Representatives of the publishers were heard by the New York delegation in Congress, who assembled in the Ways and Means Committee room. Senator Wadsworth (N. Y.) presided and Senator Calder (N. Y.) and all House members of the delegation now in Washington attended the informal hearing.

John Adams Thayer, secretary of the Periodical Publishers Association, introduced the speakers. He made a brief argument during which he said the new postal rates would reduce the Government's revenue, destroy many publications, bring loss of employment to hundreds of printers, artists and others enthe company.

The payment of a like sum was allowed to Winthrop & Stimson, counsel to the receivers. The order further authorises Receivers Odell and Holt to increase the pay of the employees at the New York offices of the company 10 per cent. Upon taking charge the receiver reduced the pay of the New York em ployees on an average 4 per cent. below that which they received from the com-pany. PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 29 .- "Condiions revealed by the aircraft investigaion would not have been so deplorable had it not been for the publishing of information alleged to have been a statement of what had really been accomplished, when the information was only what was hoped to be done," said Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, in addressing the Brown commencement gathering at Sayles Hall this afternoon.

Senator Lodge declared that the work of the various inquiries was not to block progress, but solely to speed up the arrying on of the war.

A reference to President Wilson calling to Charles Evans Hughes to conduct the aircraft investigation was greated by applause when made by President Faunce as an example of how the war has knit the various factions of the
